Dear friends,

I had hoped to write at this time with further updates, information and suggestions. However, the announcement yesterday evening by the Prime Minister has once again dramatically changed the texture of our common life.

At the moment I have taken the very difficult decision to close our church buildings even for personal prayer, and this will remain the case until and unless I receive clear instructions to the contrary.

I hope to be able to offer more when I write again at the weekend with next week's prayer booklet. For now, all I can do is urge you to please pray – and please follow the instructions from the government, in spirit as well as in letter.

Unto God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you.
The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you;
the Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.
