County Council service updates

Following the Prime Minister's announcement on Saturday evening (31 October), the County Council immediately reviewed what the new lockdown restrictions would mean for County Council services. All changes will be carefully communicated to residents and partners with clear advice and guidance. There are some areas for which the County Council still awaits further information from the Government, however the position of some key services from Thursday 5 November is as follows:

- Household Waste Recycling Centres (HWRCs) will stay open. The booking service will remain, and residents are reminded of how to safely visit HWRCs in a press release
- Hampshire Highways improvement works will continue, Covid-safe working standards were implemented earlier this year and all highways maintenance work on Hampshire's roads is carried out in line with the Construction Leadership Council's Site Operation Procedures, which is based on Public Health England guidance
- Country parks and Sir Harold Hillier Gardens will remain open
- Registration Services will be limited due to Government restrictions from 5 November. Weddings and Civil Partnership ceremonies will not be permitted to take place, other than in exceptional circumstances. The service is proactively contacting customers who have ceremonies booked and where it has been possible, some ceremonies have been brought forward. All customers who have ceremonies booked during the lockdown will be contacted. Birth registrations can be completed over the telephone or online.
- The Hampshire Coronavirus Helpline - 0333 370 4000 – remains open to support vulnerable residents. In addition, the Connect to Support Hampshire website has a Coronavirus resource page with information

The County Council continues to respond to new national guidance and will update its webpages with information on any further changes to services. Press releases will also be issued on key topics when updates are available, these are published on the news pages.

University Hospital Southampton (UHS)

UHS has today (2 November) issued a press release to announce that the chief executive of UHS, Paula Head, is leaving. Paula, who joined the Trust in 2018, will immediately move to a role supporting the NHSI/E national testing director on the deployment of rapid testing, point of care testing and near patient testing programmes. David French will assume the role of interim chief executive of the Trust.

NHS England medical director, Professor Stephen Powis, met with staff at UHS on Friday (30 October) to hear about the Trust's response to Covid-19 and their pioneering research, including the development of a non-invasive home saliva test piloted in the city, which is being evaluated as a possible method for mass testing. For more information, please see the UHS press release.

National context

Press conference – 31 October

The Prime Minister announced that from Thursday 5 November, new national restrictions will apply in England, initially for 28 days up to 2 December. Until 5 November, people should continue to follow the local restrictions for their area (Hampshire – “medium”).

Key points:

- People will be asked to ‘stay home’, except for specific purposes including exercise, medical appointments, visiting support bubble, childcare, education and work purposes (where it is not possible to work from home).
- Social distancing applies, 2m rule.
- Certain businesses and venues to close, with only food shops, supermarkets, garden centres and other specified retailers providing essential goods and services remaining open.
- In contrast to the previous lockdown, early years, schools, colleges and universities are to remain open.
- Shielding arrangements will not be reintroduced for those clinically extremely vulnerable. There will be no national food boxes.
- Weddings and civil partnership ceremonies will not be permitted to take place except in exceptional circumstances. However, funerals can be attended by a maximum of 30 people.
- The Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme (furlough scheme) will remain open until December, with employees receiving 80% of their current salary for hours not worked, up to a maximum of £2,500.
- People will be asked to avoid all non-essential journeys and travel.
- Overnight stays and holidays away from primary residences will not be allowed.

General information on the new national restrictions has been published and it is understood that more guidance will be published in the coming days.
