School attendance

The number of school aged children attending schools has continued to rise in Hampshire but is now stabilising. On Monday (6 July), over 38,000 students were in attendance.

Hampshire County Council is working closely with headteachers to ensure that all schools open fully for all children from September. The Department for Education issued guidance last week setting out the public health advice schools should adhere to and the Authority is liaising with headteachers to ensure this is closely followed.

Children's Services

The County Council's Director of Children's Services and his leadership team today (8 July) presented a detailed report on the Department's response to the challenges of Covid-19 to the cross-party Children and Young People Select Committee. This highlighted the particular challenges faced and reflected how staff have adapted to changes and have been working differently to ensure a high level of service is maintained for children, young people and their families in the face of lockdown. The Children's Services Update on Covid Response and the related presentation slides are available on the Hampshire County Council website.

Financial recovery package

At the remote meeting of Cabinet and then the remote meeting of County Council, both next week, Members will consider the Medium Term Financial Strategy Update. The report provides an update on the medium-term financial prospects for the County Council to 2022/23, in view of the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Short-term steps needed to deal with almost £110 million of unplanned costs and losses this financial year are proposed. Since the start of the crisis, the County Council has been responding to challenges faced by care homes, caring for vulnerable children, supporting the local economy, and repositioning public-facing services. It has also lost significant income in areas such as school meals, country parks and outdoor centres, property services and registration services, and been forced to pause crucial savings programmes – adding to the overall financial pressures.

Local Covid-19 data

The Local Government Association's LG Inform produced the below Covid-19 tracker using Public Health England data. The LG Inform reports show both the current data for authorities, as well as data over time. The information has also been combined with population data, to create a rate per 100,000 people and demonstrate relative rates of infection between authorities.

The figures relate to confirmed cases of Covid-19 following a positive test and do not cover all cases of Covid-19 which may exist – for more information on the methodology see LGA and Gov UK. For more detail and to view other charts with Hampshire specific data see LGA LG Inform.
