Dear Councillor Huxstep

Further to my email dated 10th October 2017 regarding the upcoming carriageway resurfacing works on Menslands Lane, Hambledon, unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances these works have now been postponed. The new date is provisionally set for late November 2017. I will write to you again when the new date is confirmed with our contractor.

An updated letter will be sent to local residents and an email will be sent to Winchester City Council & Hambledon Parish Council to advise them accordingly.
