Subject: Updates.

Good afternoon everyone,

I'm emailing just to let you know that I'm taking a couple of days annual leave as of the end of today but will be back at my desk on Monday (27th April). If you have got any queries, please do email in the meantime and I'll pick them up when I'm back in.

I've listed below some info around VE Day 75 which is available on our website also. It gives details on RBL plans and ways you may like to get involved or share with others.

VE day 75

We have been advised so far that VE day 75 will be most likely Remembrance led on this occasion and that there will be some further details available shortly. So far we know:

- There will also be a national sing along to Dame Vera Lynn's; We will meet again at 9pm on Friday the 8th May. It will be featured in a special VE day BBC 1 broadcast. Full details are here: <https://www.britishlegion.org.uk/stories/ve-day-singalong>.
- We are asking the public to leave a message of thanks on our VE day 75 online message board on the website. To thank all of the brave men and women of WWII and our armed forces community. Full details here: <https://www.britishlegion.org.uk/get-involved/ways-to-give/march-poppy-press/leave-your-ve-day-message>
- As well as our school resources for VE day (That can still be used for those children of key workers who are still in attendance at school. There are also some home resources that have been developed for parents and carers to be able to talk about VE day at home and its importance. Full resources can be found here: <https://www.britishlegion.org.uk/get-involved/remembrance/teaching-remembrance>

Stay safe & well all and please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any concerns.

Kind regards,

Sarah
