The Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government has confirmed that the London Transition Board, to coordinate London's transition from lockdown to recovery from Covid-19, met for the first time yesterday (9 June). Discussion focused on infection control and testing. Key themes the Board will focus on were agreed, including the safe reopening of businesses, transport and the use of public space, and the challenges faced in health and social care.

Visas

The Home Office has updated the advice for UK visa applicants and temporary UK residents with a new section on temporary concessions if an individual is applying to enter the UK or to remain on the basis of family or private life.

Social mobility

The Social Mobility Commission has published a report which audits government action on its key social mobility recommendations from 2013 to 2020. The Commission calls for a new joined-up approach to promoting social mobility and argues that as Covid-19 has had a devastating impact on the poorest groups it is imperative to tackle social inequality more effectively.

NHS Test and Trace

Council chief executives have received a letter from Tom Riordan and Sarah-Jane Marsh, providing details of an interactive data dashboard for local government and Clinical Commissioning Groups. It combines three data sources: NHS Digital's COVID-19 National Testing Programme database, the consolidated data covering the National Testing Programme and 111/999 data about the rate of calls relating to COVID-19. It is understood that the dashboard will be further enhanced to also include care home data, 111 online data and potentially information at the level of 'Super Output Areas'.

Covid-19 ONS figures

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) has updated the data on coronavirus deaths. This shows that deaths involving Covid-19 as a percentage of all deaths in care homes decreased to 28.2% in the week to 29 May, compared with 32.5% in the previous week.

Electoral canvass

The Government has announced new measures to help address the challenges posed by Covid-19 for year's annual electoral canvass. The measures include amending the final date for this year's revised registers to be published, extending it from 1 December 2020 to February 2021. In addition, the Government will amend its Parliamentary Constituencies Bill to allow for the upcoming, independent boundary review to be based on data from a verified version of electoral registers from March 2020.

Deaths across children's services

Local context

Carers' Week

In Carers' Week (8-14 June 2020), Hampshire County Council is reaching out to potential foster carers through the start of a programme of virtual drop-in and information sessions. More information is available on the fostering webpage. The Executive Lead Member for Children's Services and Young People, Councillor Patricia Stallard, has praised all Hampshire carers who have continued to support others throughout the Covid-19 pandemic. She highlights the positive stories she has heard of how carers and families have used lockdown as an opportunity to strengthen bonds with the children and young people they look after.

Southern Health - making caring visible

During Carers' Week, Southern Health hosted a 'Carers Week Virtual Catch-up' connecting carers to allow them to listen, support and learn from one another online. Additionally, local carers are leading weekly Zoom meetings to support each other virtually during the Covid-19 pandemic. For more information on the weekly sessions for carers, please email: Niamh.Dalziel@southernhealth.nhs.uk or call 07468700507.

Regional industrial market

CBRE hosted a regional market update, to provide local business an overview of current market conditions across the South Coast. They highlighted that the market is proving resilient as demand continues to outweigh supply for good quality units and industrial space. Demand is expected to continue and especially from online retail, as this sector has been stretched by increased use. More information available from Business Hampshire. In addition, watch episode four of the Hampshire is Great series to hear CBRE's Managing Director talk about the impact of Covid-19 on the property market.

Universities

The region's universities have had to respond to the Covid-19 crisis, but the new rankings show that they continue to perform highly. University of Southampton has been placed in the top 20 of the 2021 Complete University Guide, published online. The university is placed 17th overall out of 130 universities listed in the Guide's annual league table – a rise of three places making it the highest climber of any university within the top 20 this year. Other universities in and around Hampshire also perform very well, with the University of Portsmouth ranked 61st; Solent University, Southampton, moving up 5 places to be placed 100th and; the University of Winchester ranked 105th.

Solent LEP's new loan fund

Solent LEP has announced that they are launching a loan fund to help Solent businesses. The Covid-19 Restart, Restore, and Recover Loan is designed to support businesses providing essential and economic lifeline services for the economy through the Covid-19 pandemic and also businesses that have been unable to access other Covid-19 support initiatives.
